REGULATIONS:

All paintings must be suitably framed with the appropriate hardware using "D" rings (no saw hooks or screw eyes), taut wire of sufficient gauge for the weight of the artwork, and placed not more than 1/3 from the top of the frame. Those without the proper hardware will be ineligible for entry.

All paintings must be thoroughly dry, and suitably finished/sealed based on the medium. Gallery style canvases, or wooden panels (minimum 1.5 inches thick), are acceptable without a frame, if all visible edges are painted or finished.

Only original works may be submitted. Any copies of art by other visual artists, whether paintings or photographs; or classroom work which has been demonstrated on by instructors, will not be allowed. All submitted pieces must have been created within 12 months of the beginning of the Juried Art Exhibition.

Proper identification labels must be placed securely at the back of each work of art, or on the base of each sculpture.

Accepted art shall remain throughout the entire duration of the O.A.A. Juried Show; even when sold.

Entry changes and substitutions will not be accepted. Limit of two entries per artist.

The entry fee is non-refundable. Entrants must members of the Oshawa Art Association or reside within the Durham Region of Ontario.

A maximum canvas size of 5 feet by 5 feet, and a maximum weight of 60lbs.

All sculpture pieces must be self-standing/self-supporting.

If a piece is heavy, please make contact with the O.A.A. Co-Chairs for arrangements.

How to properly hang a piece of artwork for the Juried Exhibition:

- > D Rings (no saw hooks or screw eyes)
- > Taut wire with sufficient gauge
- > Placed 1/3 from the top of the frame

A volunteer will be at the door checking for proper hardware. No repairs will be made on sight by the O.A.A.. Artists may leave and come back by the drop-off deadline (7:45pm) to complete any repairs if needed. No exceptions.
