President's Message

The OAA Inc. is going through a period of growth, and with this comes some changes. Tricia Van Oostveen has tendered her resignation. We thank her for all her efforts, and hard work during her time with the OAA Inc. We wish her every success in her future artistic endeavors. We are also seeking a team of individuals, to work together, to organize and develop Gallery 67 for the future. Any interested individuals can contact me for further information. Just a reminder, The OAA Inc. Annual Juried Show, and The Fall Art Festival are fast approaching!

The team of OAA Inc. Directors, myself included, respectfully represent, and protect all aspects of our membership. Constructive comments, ideas, and visions are always welcome. We have specific individuals to oversee, organize, and deal with certain aspects of the OAA Inc. For the smooth and professional operation of our organization, it is important to communicate with the correct individual. Regarding today's use of social media, it is always important to confirm all facts prior to putting anything to print.

Also, be aware there are many scams out there targeting artists. We all have a common bond to one another! The love of art, of creating, sharing what we create, and this organization, to which we belong. Be kind to one another, and happy creating!

- Mary Gartlan
